WEATHER INDICATIONS.
Fair tonight and Thursday.

Mrs. Joe Sheridan has returned from pleasure trip to Mexico.

J. F. Maguire, superintendent at the Rio Grande Woolen Mills, was taken suddenly ill last evening, and was confined to his home today.

C. W. Cook, Jr., assistant traveling freight and passenger agent for the Santa Fe in New Mexico, arrived from the south this morning.

A message from the residence of Dr. C. H. Conner at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon states that Dr. Conner seems very much improved and is resting easily.

General C. F. Easley, of Santa Fe, left today for Washington, on business. It is understood that General Easley visits the national capitol in behalf of the Joint Statehood League.

W. H. Clarke, proprietor of the Clarke hotel at Holbrook, Ariz., left this morning for that place, accompanied by Mrs. Clarke, who is recovering from an operation performed at the St. Joseph hospital.

The young son of Judge and Mrs. A. J. Crawford, who has been seriously ill with a pulmonary trouble, is now reported out of danger. The child still has a bad cough, but is resting very comfortably.

J. Mugler, a brother of Mrs. Wiontze and Miss Mugler, of Santa Fe, and also a brother of Mrs. Herman Hase, of this city, has arrived here, and expects to make this city his home in the future.

The merchants of the city have begun to decorate their windows and stores for the Christmas trade. Already many of the merchants have their holiday goods on display. The Christmas gifts this year are more beautiful than ever.

The All Star Specialty company will give a complete change of program on Saturday afternoon and evening, Dec. 9, at the Elks opera house. A word to the wise, don't forget the date. Prices, matinee, 15 and 25 cents; evening, 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Mrs. F. Stuart Foster, accompanied by her daughter Miss Iva Foster, both residents of Montreal, Canada, arrived in Albuquerque last night for a several weeks' pleasure visit, after which they will continue on a tour of the United States that they are making.

Rev. Bruce Kinney and family left this morning for their home at Salt Lake City, after a pleasant visit in the city with relatives and friends. Mrs. Kinney was formerly Miss Mable Alger of this city. Rev. Kinney is the Baptist missionary for Utah and Wyoming.

The annual business meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. William Farr, 301 South Edith street. This is an important meeting and the members are urged to be present.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the musical recital to be given Thursday evening in the hall of the Guild of St. John's Episcopal church. Leonard Miller, the whistler, and J. W. Hetherington, tenor, will assist, and in addition to the music dainty refreshments will be served.

Arthur Kline, Louis Segil, Ora Breen and Joe McCaffery, A. D. T. messenger boys of the Western Union Telegraph company, are respectfully attired these days in brand new uniforms, with silver buttons and red braids, and as they flit back and forth delivering messages, look very neat, indeed.

Dan Duffy, formerly a plumber for the Whitney company, accompanied by his wife, left last night for Tucson, Arizona, where he goes for the benefit of his health. Mr. and Mrs. Duffy have been in Albuquerque about four months but it was thought that a lower altitude would prove more beneficial for him, hence their change of residence.

Miss Mary, the fourteen year old daughter of Mrs. A. David, who resides at 906 South First street, is slowly recovering from a very severe illness with typhoid fever. The little lady has been dangerously sick for eight or nine weeks, but is now able to sit up for a short time each day, and friends hope for continued improvement.

Richard G. Wilson, the young man who was dangerously injured while stealing a ride on a Santa Fe Central train, near Willard Saturday night and taken to the St. Vincent hospital at the territorial capital, is reported to have a brother residing at Winslow, Ariz., and a sister living at Buffalo, N. Y. The young man is in a precarious condition and may have to undergo another operation.

In the wake of "The Marriage of Kitty" comes "Cousin Kate," of the same family of comedy drama, at the Elks opera house on Friday evening. The management has taken the precaution to send out a large number of invitations to the affair, which has become a very forcible way of advertisement.

tings. Manager Matson recommends the performance highly, and according to the advance sale of seats, the attendance will be quite large.

Invitations have been received here announcing the approaching marriage of Percy E. Cleland to Miss Susan Marsh, daughter of Mrs. Susan Taylor Wright. The ceremony will take place at Wheeling, West Virginia, on Wednesday, Dec. 20. The prospective groom is a brother of A. W. Cleland and a few years ago resided in this city.

The funeral of George H. Walters was conducted from the chapel of A. Borders' undertaking parlors this morning at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. J. W. T. McNeill, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated, and in his remarks paid the memory of the deceased a touching tribute. A large number of friends attended the services and laid beautiful floral offerings upon the casket. The burial was made in Fairview cemetery.

WILLIAM ASTRO, AN OLD TIMER, IS DEAD

WELL KNOWN MUSICIAN AND INSTRUCTOR DIED LAST EVENING.

William Astro passed away last evening at about 9 o'clock, aged 79 years. Deceased was a well known resident of Albuquerque where he has resided for the past twenty years. He was an accomplished musician and master of the violin and piano. Until falling he called a halt, Mr. Astro instructed a large class of German-American residents of the city on the violin and piano. His demise will bring sorrow to a large circle of friends. As far as can be learned deceased had no relatives living in this country, all of them living in the old country. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. tomorrow from A. Borders' chapel.
